

Portland Handweavers Guild

Member Projects

September 2021

Linda Edquist

Baby Blanket

- There were actually 3 in different variations.
- 8/2 cottons
- Inspiration was baby Poppy so the colors are taken from a seed packet of the flower.
- Variations on twill patterns

Linda Edquist

Baby Blanket

- There were actually 3 in different variations.
- 8/2 cottons
- Inspiration was baby Poppy so the colors are taken from a seed packet of the flower.
- Variations on twill patterns

Linda Edquist

Yardage

- Yardage for a future jacket
- Green wool warp with variegated rayon chenille weft
- Piece of the green warp also in twill for accent color on jacket

Lynne Fitzsimmons

Napkins

- Some napkins from the Discover Gradients online class

Lynne Fitzsimmons

Towels

- Some crackle weave towels
(from an article by Linda Gettmann in Handwoven)

Mary Gayle Van Ingen

Kersplash!!!

- Title: Kersplash!!!
- Technique: Knotting
- Materials: Knotted cotton, beads
- Size: 8 1/2" x 8 1/2"

Debbie Ellis

Tapestry

- “These two 5x7” tapestries are from the current ATA postcard exchange. Each person who signs up is assigned a random “pen pal,” and I was paired with - gasp! - Molly Elkind, a well-known tapestry artist and teacher. The rose and blue triangle postcard is the one I created for Molly, and the blue sky and grasses card is the one Molly sent to me.”

Debbie Ellis
Tapestry

Debbie Ellis

Violet Protest

- “I visited the Phoenix Art Museum last month to see the Violet Protest exhibit and to meet Ann Morton. I found two of my squares on the hanging strips, far right. The pile in front spells out “US.””

Debbie Ellis

Scarf

- Spaced warp/weft boucle scarf of indeterminate yarn, woven on a RH loom, 10 dpi. It burn tested protein but would not dye in jewel tones. Original yarn color was lt grey. I acid dyed this turquoise and dk violet.

Judee Moonbeam

Amy Belgan Tapestry

Amy Belgan
Tapestry

