

President's Message

Welcome to a new guild year! The guild calendar follows an academic calendar for lots of reasons. September always feels like a new beginning, more so than January for me. We had a fabulous weaving summer, and now we're on to Fall! The September Diamond Anniversary show is up now, and it'll knock your socks off! There's some truly amazing weaving on display this month, including Barbie and Bling! Thanks to Emily Guiland Larson, Cathy Barnes, Mina Ossiander and all their helpers who put up the summer shows! Special thanks to Mina for taking on the Exhibits Chair position going forward!

Our September program will be a mini Fiberama/Weftover sale, chock full of wonderful stuff, PLUS the Guatemalan Textiles generously donated by Cheri Pancake. Check the details and look for the link to photos below! The October program will combine the Weaving Basics Study Group's presentation about GAMPS, and the Fiber Arts Celebration & Holiday Sale Team who will talk about this year's Celebration & Sale! Check the Program update below for details on Robyn Spady's visit! Do note that the November meeting is on the second Monday (11/13), instead of the fourth Monday just this once!

So, keep on weaving and be sure and send in your September show & tell photos to ME (tdpigg@yahoo.com) by Sunday, 9/24, instead of Sue, who'll be traveling.
Diane Pigg

GUILD NEWS:

EWG's next meeting will take place on Monday September 25, 10am -noon in person and via Zoom. Because this month is our mini-Fiberama, the Zoom meeting will conclude at the end of the business meeting (which includes Show & Tell). Watch for the invitation to the Zoom meeting, which will be sent via Guild email (info@eugeneweavers.com) on Sunday September 24. The agenda will be available on the EWG website a day before the meeting.

Communications Reminder: If you have information you would like to distribute to EWG members please send it to info@eugeneweavers.com.

WELCOME

September Program: Mini Fiberama

On sale will be donated yarn, books, small equipment, accessories and a variety of services. We have already received six bins of Guatemalan textiles and four boxes of yarn. Check out some of the Guatemalan textiles here: Link! We can't wait to see what else comes in during the week before the sale! Included in the festivities will be door prizes starting at 10 am. As usual, the business meeting will start at 10 am and the sale will begin at 11. You are welcome to bring your friends to the event. Please note that sales at Fiberama will be cash or check only!

From September 20th-22nd 10:00-5:00, and September 23rd 10:00-noon, guild members may bring in donations of yarn, books (anything fiber-related), and small weaving or spinning equipment. In addition, as a new twist this year, we are asking for donations of ethnic-inspired clothing or accessories. There will be clearly marked tables in the guild area at ETC where you can place your donations. We will also accept donations of services like hemming, baking, or lessons. (please contact Cathy at cbarnes@uoregon.edu for service donations).

Please note that donations are not tax-deductible. Unsold items will be donated to MECCA, St. Vincent de Paul or ETC, unless there are things you want returned to you. If so, clearly mark these items with your information.

Contact Cathy Barnes cbarnes@uoregon.edu for further information.

75th Anniversary Celebration and Reception:

After 5 years of planning, COVID set-backs, and lots of ideas our 75th celebration will wrap up on September 30. There will be a reception at Eugene Textile Center meeting room from 5:30 - 7:00 pm for members and their families. Our History Timeline will be displayed (special thanks to Debbie Meckley and Sue Donaldson), our 4th exhibit of the summer - Diamonds will be up, there will be lots of refreshments and good conversations. Please come and enjoy the fun.

A special thank you to the 75th Celebration Committee for all their hard work - Diane Pigg, Jeanne Remiro, Debbie Meckley, Sue Donaldson, and Emily Guillard-Larson.

75th Exhibits

The 75th Committee would like to thank all those who participated in our four Exhibits over the summer. If you get a chance please thank them for making our shows a success - Mina Ossiander, Krista Richey, Diane Pigg, John Morse, Cathy Barnes, Alexis Garrett, Jeanne Remiro, Emily Guillard-Larson, Susan McConnell, Joan Swift, Karen Sieradski, Tracy Livernois, Nancy Hoskins, Pat Cane, Susannah Day, Sarah Hunter, Barbara Setsu Pickett, Beki Ries-Montgomery, Dru McCarthy.

Timeline of Eugene Weavers' Guild

The Timeline of the Eugene Weavers' Guild will be displayed at Eugene Textile Center in September during our Diamond Exhibit. This was a monumental undertaking requiring the participation of many guild members and was funded with a grant from Association of Northwest Weavers Guilds. It consists of posters highlighting each decade of the Guild's activities. A giant thank you goes to Debbie Meckley and Sue Donaldson for all their hard work designing, editing, researching and pulling this project together. And also to Pat Cane, Jeanne Remiro and Emily Guiland-Larson for helping them research our history and providing feedback.

Workshop/Seminar Update – Save the Date! Register Now!

Robyn Spady will be offering the EWG a customized 3-hour seminar on November 13, from 1:00-4:00, following the monthly Guild Meeting.

Versatile Drafts and Yarn - A dozen drafts to adapt for a wide variety of projects

Drafts are just the beginning! The choices you make as far as yarn, sett, and more can make a draft versatile for a variety of purposes. Robyn will share a dozen different drafts and explore how to adapt them for projects ranging from dish towels and scarves to baby blankets, yardage and creative ideas you haven't even dreamed of yet! Please join us for an interactive and fun afternoon with Robyn and leave with a handout including drafts and ideas.

For more information and/or to register contact Leslie Conery (Leslie.s.conery@gmail.com).

The 2023 Fiber Arts Celebration and Holiday Sale

Friday and Saturday after Thanksgiving - November 24 and 25.

The holiday season is coming up and so is our annual Celebration and Sale! The Sale Committee is busy planning the event and we hope you are busy planning and making projects as well. Our hope is that every Guild member will have at least one item in the sale and that all members will drop by to join in the celebration. All activities are back - the Raffle, Demonstrations, Refreshments, Daily Drawings, the annual edition of the bread cloths and runners and, of course, the member Sale. You will receive an email with detailed information soon.

We will begin selling raffle tickets at the September Guild meeting and there will also be a volunteer sign-up sheet. The October program includes the Sales Team (you don't want to miss it!) and after the meeting John Morse will do a pricing workshop. We've also added a session on how to fill out price tags and inventory sheets. Questions? We have the answers! For specific questions or comments please contact the Sales Team member listed for each section below.

SALE - contact, Debbie Meckley (ddwmeck@gmail.com)

The Holiday Sale is open to all Guild members to sell handmade items containing a fiber component. All items need to be priced and inventoried using the official tags and forms (these will be sent to you) prior to checking items into the sale. Members who have sold items prior to this year will use their previously assigned sale number. If you have forgotten their number, have not sold items for several years, or you are a new seller who needs a sale number, please contact Debbie. Sellers will receive 80% of the proceeds of the sale, with 15% going to the Guild treasury and 5% going to ETC. All sellers are obligated to volunteer before or during the sale. If a member is unable to volunteer, please contact Debbie. Sellers have the option of including any unsold items in the Eugene Textile Center's Holiday Bazaar that runs through to December 24.

SELLER CHECK-IN - contact, Jeanne Remiro (jremiro15@gmail.com)

We encourage sellers to check items into the sale on Friday, November 17 or Saturday, November 18. You can sign up for a time at our October 23 Guild meeting. If you will not be at the October meeting in person or you are unable to check-in your items on November 17 or 18, please contact Jeanne to request an alternative time. If you have questions about properly filling in the price tags and inventory sheets, help will be available at the pricing workshop after the October meeting.

PRICING WORKSHOP - contact, John Morse (jmoresecode65@gmail.com)

If you are unsure about how to competitively price your items for sale or need help pricing a specific item, we encourage you to attend John Morse's in-person only pricing workshop after the October 23 Guild meeting. John has a good understanding of the value of handwoven items and uses information from past Guild sales to suggest a price range for specific items.

RAFFLE - contact, Diane Burt (dneburt@yahoo.com) or John Morse (jmoresecode65@gmail.com) Proceeds (after expenses) from the raffle will be donated to Egan Warming Center and Cafe 40-Meals on Wheels, the two charities we have donated to for several years. We encourage everyone to check-out tickets to sell (or buy!). Tickets will be available at our September 25 and October 23 Guild meetings and during the Celebration and Sale.

DOOR PRIZES - contact, Diane Burt (dneburt@yahoo.com)

To encourage feedback about our celebration and sale, visitors will be asked to fill out a comment card. Cards will be drawn throughout the two days for door prizes. These prizes are donated by various local businesses and guild members. If you would like to donate, please let Diane know. Members are not eligible to win door prizes.

VOLUNTEER - contact, Diane Burt (dneburt@yahoo.com)

The Fiber Arts Celebration and Holiday Sale cannot happen without member volunteers. There will be many opportunities to donate time and energy before and during the event. These include placing posters and bookmarks at various locations throughout the community, greeting our visitors at the door, sales floor help and helping to check out customers during the sale. A complete list of volunteer opportunities with specific days and times will be available at the September 25 Guild meeting. Please note that all sellers are obligated to volunteer. If you will not be at the meeting in person and would like to volunteer, please contact Diane Burt.

You may also join the Sales Team! It is a great opportunity to help the Guild and connect with other members and the public. Offering items for sale is not required. We have many tasks to fit your skills! Contact any team member.

Lane County Fair

Several Guild members submitted weaving, spinning and knitting items to the July Lane County Fair. Three members demonstrated on one afternoon. Barbara Setsu Pickett demonstrated her card weaving, Janet Kallstrom showed the visitors how to spin yarn and Barbara Richmond brought her table loom for children and adults to try their hand at weaving. It is a great way to let the people of the Willamette Valley see what is being done to preserve these skills. There didn't seem to be as many entries as in previous years and the organizers also said that there were not very many entries in the baked goods departments either. We need to continue entering items so that the Fair does not discontinue these categories.

Guild Dues Reminder:

Please mail or drop off your cheques by September 30. You can find the year that your dues expire listed under your name on the Guild Roster. Dues can be dropped off at the Eugene Textile Center or mailed to the Guild ☺, ETC.

ANWG

"Connecting With Oregon History" was the theme of our guild's booth at the ANWG

Conference in June. Oregon was a major grower of flax and processor of linen in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. One poster gave a synopsis of Nancy Hoskin's research into this industry. Another poster contained a pictorial record of Krista Richey's journey into growing her own flax and then turning it into linen yarn. And a third poster told the story of Tracy Livernois' efforts to process, spin, and weave with flax. The Weave Structure Study Group provided the textiles displayed in the booth. They were all woven with linen or cottolin. Both posters and textiles were displayed at ETC as the July Show for our 75th Anniversary Celebration.

Weaving Guilds of Oregon (WeGO) is a state-wide collaboration of guilds that encourages weaving through education. WeGO consists of an Executive Board, Representatives from each of the 16 guilds, and committee chairpersons.

STUDY GROUPS:

Weaving Basics Study Group (WBSG)

The Weaving Basics Study Group is aimed at beginning to intermediate weavers who would like a place to discuss the ins and outs of project planning and practicing their weaving skills. They currently meet on the second Saturday of the month, sometimes via Zoom and sometimes in person. For more info contact Diane Pigg at tdpigg@yahoo.com or 541-741-3253.

Beyond 8-Shafts Study Group (B8SSG)

The mission of the Beyond 8-shafts Study Group is to explore and share information relevant to weaving on looms with more than 8 shafts. This group does not have a set meeting schedule. Contact Emily Guiland-Larson at emgl6529@aol.com for more information.

Natural Dye and Ethnic Textile Study Group (NDET)

NDET is dedicated to the use of natural dyes on natural fibers suitable for weaving, with an emphasis on locally available, organic, and sustainable dyestuffs. This group does not currently have a leader, but they do have an active email group where they share ideas, links and pictures. Contact Diane Pigg at tdpigg@yahoo.com to be added to the email group.

Weave Structure Study Group (WSSG)

WSSG is a learning community devoted to broadening the understanding of weave structures through education, practice, and group sharing. In Fall 2023 they will begin looking at M's and O's. They meet at 10:30 on the second Tuesday of the month. Contact Cathy Barnes at cbarnes@uoregon.edu for more information.

Scandinavian Weaves Study Group (SCAN)

This group studies the weaving traditions of the Scandinavian countries. They communicate via email and a monthly newsletter with pictures. Contact Kathie Lindlan at klindlan29@icloud.com for more information.

Band Weaving Study Group

This group is no longer meeting. Contact Leslie Verts at carver@proaxis.com or 541.223.2464 for more information if you'd like to help revive it..

Rigid Heddle Study Group

Members will support and encourage each other by helping to solve problems related to rigid heddle weaving and by sharing project ideas and resources. Contact Deb Meckley at ddwmeck@gmail.com if you are interested in joining. There will be quarterly Zoom meetings and additional meetings as the group desires.

Weavers Who Sew Study Group

In this group guild members will explore transforming rectangular textiles that come off their looms into clothing, tote bags and home accessories. All levels of sewing are welcome. They will share ideas and patterns and offer encouragement for individual projects. This group will be led by Cathy Barnes and will meet once every three months either on Zoom or in person. For more info contact Cathy at cbarnes@uoregon.edu.

Make Do and Mend (MDM) Study Group (new in Autumn 2023)

The goal of this group is multipurpose: to reduce the waste of fiber materials, to value and reuse existing textiles, to share and repair cloth with the multitude of textile ephemera in our stashes. We hope to make a dent in fabric waste in the world, and to adopt behaviors that show that intention. Contact Marilyn at marilyn@marilynrobert.com for more information.

Mentoring Opportunity – Selling at Portland Gathering of the Guilds Spring 2024 Show

Annie Fischer, who presented our program earlier this year, has generously offered to mentor a small group of people interested in selling their work at the Portland Gathering of the Guilds. Here's what she had to say –

When I did the talk, I had a few people express interest in how to sell things. If there was interest in having a booth as a guild, I would be happy to mentor the group. I can share some of the lessons I've learned over the years about displays, selling, setting up and even how to price things and how many to make.

It's one of my best shows - people come to buy. The Portland Handweavers Guild has a whole aisle which has people who are experienced in selling in booths. But last year, the Portland Handweavers Guild had a shared booth where a number of people without much experience displayed and took a turn selling. It could be a painless entry into sales at best or at worst a fun weekend out with the girls.

Please contact Pat Cane if you're interested!

Digital Submission Guidelines for Show and Tell

Please send your images to Diane Pigg (tdpigg@yahoo.com) at least one day before the guild meeting, in pdf, tiff, png or jpeg formats. Don't forget to include materials, epi, ppi, weave structure and other information Please don't try to format the written information – it is easier for me to do that in PowerPoint. Thanks for your help and keep sending me your latest pieces!

Open Position: Email distribution manager Pat Cane is stepping down after many years of service. The Eugene Weavers' Guild Email Manager is an important, behind the scenes, position to ensure communications to and from the Guild Board, Members, regional associations, and other guilds. It can easily be done when it is convenient to your schedule from your desk as long as it is done regularly and in a timely manner. There are three main responsibilities: distributing the EWG Newsletter, Thrums; the EWG Blasts; and maintaining the master member distribution list.

Attendance at Board meetings is not required, but it helps to stay current on guild activities so you know where to direct inquiries and communications received. We have a full description of duties, and Pat Cane has promised to help with the transition. Please contact Pat Cane or Diane Pigg for more information if you have any interest!

Note: EWG May Minutes are attached to the end of this newsletter.

ETC – Special Event in November!

We are hosting a two-hour program with Robyn Spady on the evening of ETC Special Event! Saturday, November 11th. The program will start at 5:30, with light refreshments and wine/other beverages. Robyn will be discussing weaving successfully with novelty yarns. There will be a small $5 fee for registration. You can sign up online, or in person: <https://www.eugenetextilecenter.com/spady-novelty-yarn>. Following is her description:

Walk into most yarn shops and it's easy to become fascinated with stunning novelty yarns. But if you're a weaver, it can be a challenge to figure out how to incorporate them into weaving projects in order to showcase the yarns without breaking the bank. In this program, a variety of weave structures will be reviewed to add new dimensions to your weaving and let you take advantage of fun and exciting yarns. Including a hands-on portion where you'll get a taste for how much fun you can have with your yarn stash.
